ARTISTS IN RESIDENCE

Artists in Residence are integral to our work in the Performing Arts at Sedgehill as we believe that working with a professional from the industry enriches our students' experience of school.

We aim to ensure that every student in KS3 gets the opportunity to work with professional musicians, artists, dancers and actors. These activities are designed to enhance the learning experience of our students in a variety of ways from developing new skills, increasing motivation to improving confidence.

CURRENT ARTISTS

Letitia Simpson (Dancer in Residence) A former Sedgehill student, Letitia has worked with artists and companies worldwide, including the likes of RnB superstar Kelly Rowland and Swedish street dance company Bounce.

Wayne Lucas (Artist in Residence) Internationally exhibited artist Wayne Lucas has been working as a community artist in London for the last twenty years.

Hannah Henson (Actor in Residence) Trained at Arts Institute at Bournemouth Hannah is a professional actor based in South London.

Paul Christmas (School Band Leader) Paul is a freelance session musician backing various artists including Elton John, Dionne Warwick, and Burt Bacharach. He has worked for various music schools across South London.

Andy Gilbert (Musician in Residence) Andy Gilbert works in the music industry as a singer, writer and music producer. He has worked with the X Factor, toured Europe in various pop bands and has been signed to labels such as V2, EMI and MCS MUSIC.
